

HELLO
MY NAME IS

SHELBY

ADOPT ME!

I'M A SUMMA CUM LAUDE DOGGIE OBEDIENCE GRADUATE (DOG) WITH A PHD IN LOVE AND SNUGGLES. I'M KIND OF A BIG DEAL.

Back in the day, I was known as Shelby from the block. A teen mom twice over, I lived in the backyard attached to a chain, and raised my babies outside until they went to new homes. After all that, I got tossed out on my own. And I wasn't even a year old. Life was ruff then.

Then, an angel came along. She took me in, found some nice people to take care of me, and helped me get back on my feet. Life is good now. I have a personal assistant who's also a gourmet chef, concierge, driver, and massage therapist. This must be what it's like to be J Lo.

I missed out on obedience school when I was busy raising puppies. So, I went back to school. Guess what? I'm the teacher's pet! I'm perfect on a leash, I'll sit, stay, lay down, and go to my quiet place on command. I'm great with dogs of all sizes and I play respectfully in the "calm" group at daycare. I worked my tail off to earn my diploma. Now, I just need a place to call home.

I'm a happy, snuggly dog looking for an experienced owner who loves and understands me. Belly rubbers encouraged.

Interested? Have your people email my people – info@stfrancisanimal.org. Or, even better, fill out an adoption application at stfrancisanimal.org.

Shelby's tax-deductible adoption fee is $250.
